DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 13,14 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Atmur (US20030001538)

Claim 13: A method for controlling a brushless DC motor, which comprises iteratively repeating the following method steps for adjusting an operating point of the motor for a predetermined setpoint speed: adjusting the speed of the motor to a value of the setpoint speed by varying an average terminal voltage of the motor, and thereby determining the average terminal voltage of the motor by pulse width modulation (par 0005); detecting a average power requirement of the motor and a lead angle between a rotor of the motor and a driving magnetic field (par 0021, 0038); and approximating the lead angle to a predetermined desired value as a function of the speed and the average power requirement (par 0022).

Claim 14: the desired value is a value of the lead angle that maximizes an efficiency of the motor for respectively associated values of the speed and average power requirement (par 0040).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 15,16 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Atmur in view of Heglund (US5936386)

Claim 15: Atmur teaches the method according to claim 14. Referring to claim 15, Atmur does not teach determining the desired value of the lead angle from a characteristic map.

Heglund teaches determining desired variables from a map (Col. 2:14-42). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the method of Atmur to use a map as taught by Heglund in order to control the motor.

Claim 16: Heglund teaches obtaining desired variable by interpolation (col. 2:14-42)

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 17-22 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
